And as is generally the case public opinion is not in error. "All the world" is not often mistaken aren in France where impressions are more trigitive than elsewhere—a fact occasioned by the chunal. Public opinion is right, and the situation is a very trying one whatever to their imperial optimism the organs of the government may say. Very many of the questions pending or postponed are grave indeed and admit of no other solution than a retrograde morement in the imperial march, a revolution, or, what unfortunately is more probable, a foreign sear.

MINING PRICES OF PROVINGING.

Among the most pressing and immediate questions is the high price of the trees of the compared of the compared id vinity of Chicago—and consequently will dentified as a foreign and consequently will dentified as of the results question from the poin of view:
